

Completed
Final
2/10/84

Arab Community In Sacramento

Interviewees: Lina Abou Chanab
and
Aida Akawi

Interviewer: Viviane Doche
Sacramento History Center
November 29, 1983

note: Each specified topic includes both interviewees' responses except where separate names are indicated.

INDEX

SIDE A

- 0 Introduction
- :46 Immigration to United States and Personal History
(Lina from Syria in 1966; Aida from Kuwait in 1969)
- 4:58 Education Pursued
- 7:47 Ideas of Life if Stayed in Middle East
- 9:21 Experiences and Impressions on Coming to United States (Lina)
- 11:06 Expectations of Parents: Education, Marriage, and Guidelines for Dating
- 15:40 Experiences and Impressions on Coming to United States (Aida)
- 18:45 Differences in Education between U.S. and Middle Eastern Arab Countries
- 21:54 Marriage Preferences
- 24:56 Family Concept in Arab Countries vs. U.S.: Children

*****

INDEX

SIDE B

- 0 Relationship of Spouses in Arab Family
- 2:54 Relationship between Arab Men and American Women; Mixed Marriages
- 5:55 Adjusting to or Acceptance of American Values
- 6:53 Differences between Arab and American Values; Dress Differences
- 11:50 Concept of Friendship to Arabs

INDEX

SIDE B (cont.)

17:20	Contact with Older Immigrants in United States
20:01	Development of New Antiochian Orthodox Mission; SOYO Club
24:57	Future of Arab-American Community
28:02	Identification in Terms of Nationality
30:02	Dealing with Prejudice because of Ethnic Identity

*****